Emmanuel

Why Emmanuel?

Emmanuel was born in Sierra Leone and although he attended church regularly until his teenage years, he eventually stopped going. Some godly neighbours were praying for him and eventually invited him to a meeting where he accepted Jesus Christ into his life. Since then following Jesus has been costly.

Emmanuel is married to Bridget and they have one child.

At the moment he and his wife are serving God in S.E. Asia where they are responsible for oversight of the church as well as preaching and teaching at Christian gatherings. Emmanuel is also involved in the discipling of believers.

As Emmanuel has never received formal training for his roles, he has embarked on a 3 year correspondence course with Moore College in UK where he is training for a Certificate in Theology. This training will equip him to be more effective in the future. The course will be completed in December 2009.
