Training for Mission – Transforming Mission

Weekly Prayer Focus

Issue No: 5—Monday 9th November 2009

School of Biblical Preaching

The past week has seen us host this semester's School of Biblical Preaching Intensive week.

Facilitators were Douglas Johnson from AICMAR in Butere (Crosslinks Mission Partner), Julian Milson (Holy Cross, Hove), Andy Harker (All Saints + Holy Trinity, Wandsworth) and James Radcliffe (Bp Hannington, Hove).

The focus of the school was on how to preach the book of Acts. The team tackled various aspects of the book as well as other topics including: person of the preacher, shaping a sermon, among others. We are grateful to God for sending us this very competent team from the UK and for helping affirm the importance of the preaching ministry in our churches.

Principal's Desk

The school of biblical preaching intensive week reminds us of the great responsibility given to us by God and the challenging task we have as gospel ministers - to preach His Word faithfully. We are grateful to the team of facilitators for giving their resources and time to run such an important intensive. We are particularly grateful to Douglas Johnson who has been organizing teams to Carlile College for about 10 years. We look forward to more schools of biblical preaching.
